

Privacy Policy

The general privacy policy for the Legislative Joint Fiscal Office is the same as the Legislative website's privacy policy.

For one month (for website testing purposes) our policy will differ from the Legislative website's privacy policy as described below:

Google Analytics Test On The Joint Fiscal Office Website

For one month, starting on December 17th, 2010 and continuing until January 17th, 2011, we will be testing the use of Google Analytics on the Joint Fiscal Office website. Details about the information we will be collecting are listed below.

After the test, we will revert to the overall legislative policy of not retaining any information. You can view a copy of this privacy policy here.

Information Collected

When you visit our website, we automatically collect and store the following information:

1. The Internet domain and IP address from which you access our website
2. The type of browser and operating system used to access our site
3. The date and time you access our site
4. The pages you visit
5. If you linked to our website from another website, the address of the prior website

We use this information to improve our website, and to get an idea of how many people are using our website.

Cookies:

A cookie is a small file used to store information in the user's browser. Because we are testing the use of Google Analytics, we will be storing cookies on user's computers to help collect the information described above.